The Reference Center offers a wide range of education-based resources and services including:

An extensive book collection of educational theory and practice.

More than 300 journal and serials publications on educational topics. Our journal holdings list is available on the Reference Center Home Page.

Complete file of ERIC documents, updated monthly.

Reference/research services using databases and the Internet.

Document reproduction service.

Collections of supplemental reading materials in children and young adult literature are also maintained for preview.

Learning Resources Display Center--includes all state-adopted textbooks and current submission (K-8).

Curriculum guides--K-12 on all subjects nationwide.

Reading By Nine is a book drive campaign for K-3 that was launched to address the low number of supplemental and recreational reading books available in schools.
